NUMBER 52.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

On Tuesday, in Circuit Court, the Standard Oil Company was fined in two cases for selling oil without license, $1,000 in one case and $500 in the other.

Albert Ransdell, for uttering a forged check, changed his plea of guilty to not guilty, and was released by the Court on probation. Cashier J. J. McClintock and Mr. B. F. Buckley, the injured parties, petitioned the Court in behalf of the prisoner, and the plea was amended as stated.

Tollie Cox, aged 14 years, the young desperado of near Bethlehem, this county, was sent to the house of Reform for seven years.

Chas. Penn, who has been ill at St. Joseph Hospital, was adjudged a lunatic yesterday by a jury, and ordered taken to the asylum. The Court appointed, Mr. Joe Penn, his Committee, who qualified at once. Mr. Penn has been an invalid for years and his many friends will regret to hear of his general breaking down.

On demand of the Bourbon Fiscal Court that the Grand Jury be reconvened to make a more thorough investigation as to the manner which that court had been running the county affairs, Judge Stout had the jury summoned back and it is now at work. The Fiscal Court insisted on indictments or exoneration from the severe criticism made in the report of the Grand Jury to the Court.

The action of the jury is now awaited with much interest.

Charles Lee, colored, was given three years in the penitentiary for malicious shooting.

Court will probably finally adjourn Saturday as that is the last day of the present term and there is no special business to extend the term.

Remembered Bourbon Relatives.

By the terms of the will of the late Jonathan D. Hearne, former President of the Third National Bank of Cincinnati, probated in that city Tuesday, in disposing of an estate of something near $200,000 he gives liberally to charity institutions and to a long list of friends and relatives. Among the list we noticed $1,000 each to Elizabeth, Nellie and Virginia Crutcher; $500 each to Misses Nellie and Georgia Fithian, of this city; $50 per annum to Bettie Hoffman, of North Middletown.

Elizabeth and Nellie Crutcher are the two little girls that are being raised by the Misses Fithian, and Virginia Crutcher, is a sister, who lives with her aunt, Mrs. Thos. Evans, near North Middletown.

Paris, Ky., Friday, June 30, 1905.

THE books were closed Tuesday night at 12 o'clock for the city primary, which is to be held on July 12th. There will be a contest for only one office, that of Chief of Police. The two candidates are Geo. M. Hill, present incumbent, and Jeff. C. Elgin, who is now one of the deputies.

We judge that the Committee at the meeting Wednesday will declare the following gentlemen the nominees as no one entered against them, viz: James M. O'Brien for Mayor; Judge E. T. Hinton, Police Judge; Wm. H. Webb, J. M. Taylor, first ward; D. C. Parrish, John Duval and T. F. Brannon, second ward, and T. P. Woods, third ward, Councilmen.

It is nothing more than a just and deserving tribute to Mr. O'Brien that he receives the nomination for Mayor without opposition, for he has for years been a faithful and efficient Councilman, giving his energy and time, without charge, in building up our city until it now ranks second to none in regard to well-paved streets and numerous other up-to-date improvements. We known of no one better qualified for the office and we predict that his reign as Mayor will redound with honor to himself and to the city.

Judge Hinton has filled the office for one term very acceptable, making a fair, impartial and just judge, and it was due him to receive an endorsement without opposition.

Messrs. Parrish, Webb, Brannon and Woods, were members of the old council and have enviable records as efficient officials. The three new candidates, Messrs. Taylor, Duval and Dempsey, are qualified to make excellent councilmen, being men of unquestionable integrity, who will on every occasion have a watchful eye for the taxpayers interest and the welfare of the city.

The election of the ticket in November is a foregone conclusion.

ARCHITECT FRANK P. MILBURN was here in consultation with the Building Committee in regard to the steps or ladder that leads to the front door of the new Court House. He submitted plans for the change, which called for six additional steps with one rest, and a six and a half inch rise, instead of a seven and a half as at present. He, however, advised them not to make any change as it would destroy the symmetry of the building. He also claimed that three-fourths of the people would enter the Court House from the side doors. The architect is supported in his opinion by the Chairman of the Building Committee, and we suppose the matter is on the shelf there to remain until the "sweet bye and bye."

Of course three-fourths of the people will go in the side-doors if the steps are left as they are now. Why not? For you are risking life and limb in tackling the front steps. Gentlemen, make some kind of a change, if it is only to run two silver plated rods down from the two middle columns. This would not mar the appearance of the building and would be a great help to our older citizens when they go up and down the incline.

SEVERAL months ago Vice-President Adams, of the Interurban road, was in town inspecting the interurban waiting room, after complaints had been made. He agreed with the News in regard to the old coal oil lamp that dimly lights the waiting room, and he said electric lights would be put in at once. The same old lamp still hangs in same old place. While the Grand Jury was requesting the Interurban people to put closets in the cars, it might have also requested them to arrange a waiting room for the colored people. It is not the most pleasant thing in the world to be sandwiched in with a lot of negroes on one of these sultry rainy days like we are in the waiting room at Interurban station. How is it that corporations like this will promise the people every convenience and never give a single one until the Court compels them?

In this issue will be found the announcement of Mr. J. C. Elgin as a candidate for Chief of Police, subject to the action of the Democratic primary. Mr. Elgin has been on the police force for near eight years and for the last five years doing night service. He has made a most excellent officer, ready at all times to do his duty when called on without fear or favor. He is qualified in every particular to fill the office of Chief, has been a life-long working Democrat and asks the people to consider his claims.

The last of these arrivals is the seven-year-old bay horse, Fair Promise, by Baron Wilkes, dam Duchess by Strathmore. Fair Promise belongs to Josh Barton, of Cynthiana, and has had a trial of 2:12¼ pacing and 2:15 trot. He was turned over to Ollie Graves to be given a mark." Fair Promise was formerly owned by Messrs. W. R. Hukill and Geo. Stuart, of this city.

Miss Sadie Beam claims the distinction of being the largest girl of her age in Nelson county says the Kentucky Standard. She is fourteen years old and weighs 201 pounds. She is about five feet three inches in height and has gained thirty pounds during the past year.

In the Coils of a Snake.

On Clay Branch, in Lee county, Mrs. Anna Marton fought a desperate battle with a black snake. The woman was at a cow gap milking and her little four-year-old child playing near by. The child screamed, and when Mrs. Marton rushed to its aid she found him in the coils of the snake. After a desperate battle she killed the reptile, which measured seven feet and four inches in length. The snake had to be unwrapped from the child's body after it was killed. The child will recover.

DEATHS.

Rev. John C. Freeman died at 9:30 o'clock Monday night at the family residence on the Versailles road, in Fayette. Mr. Freeman was seventy-three years of age, and the end came after a long life of loving service to God's children. For several years the infirmities of his age had been a burden to him and he became seriously worse several days ago, when it was evident to his family that the end was not far off. His widow and six children survive him.

He was born in Franklin county in 1832. He was one of the ablest and most widely known of the Baptist educators and ministers. He served his church in that dual capacity for forty-five years. His sons have become eminent in their professions and two of them are located in this city.

The surviving children are Prof. C. C. Freeman, formerly of Kentucky University, but now of Georgetown College; C. Y. Freeman, of the Central Bank; W. E. Freeman, of Chicago; Dr. John T. Freeman, of Louisville, and Mrs. W. O. Hinton, of this city, and Miss Eva Freeman.

The funeral took place from his late residence on the Versailles pike, Wednesday at 12 o'clock. The remains were taken to Eminence, Ky., for burial.

—Judge Chas. Stephen French died at his home in Winchester, Monday. He was known as an able jurist and a man of learning and ability. He at one time represented his district in Congress.

—Miss Nannie D. Ribeling, who has been the guest of her brother-in-law, Mr. S. W. Summers, on South Main, died Wednesday night of tuberculosis. Her home was at Elizaville, where her remains were taken yesterday morning for funeral and burial. She was aged 33 years.

THE FAIR.

Bourbon Fiscal Court Demands Thorough Investigation.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court was in session most of the day Tuesday, having under consideration the report of the grand jury recently adjourned, in which their official conduct had been severely criticised. A series of resolutions were prepared by Hon. E. M. Dickson, counsel, and were presented to Judge Robt. L. Stout late Tuesday evening. The Judge after reading the resolutions immediately ordered the Sheriff to re-convene the Grand Jury just adjourned.

The following are the resolutions:

"Be it resolved,
"First, that whereas the grand jury impaneled and sworn and sitting at the present term of the Bourbon Circuit Court, has made a report to said court, which report criticizes and condemns what is assumed to be the business methods of this court, and also reflects upon the integrity of its individual members in a manner highly detrimental to their usefulness and efficiency in the management of the fiscal affairs of this county, as well as to their good name and character—we believe that the best interest of the people of this county and the rights of the individual members of this court demand a thorough and searching investigation of all the alleged irregularities as presented by said report, and if said court or any of its members should be found by said grand jury guilty of any violation of the law, or any dereliction of official duty, the same should be indicted and punished, and if not guilty they should be exonerated and acquitted; and further believing that all of the alleged irregularities as charged against this court by said report are grossly exaggerated, if not wholly unfounded, we therefore respectfully request the Hon. Robt. L. Stout, Judge of the Bourbon Circuit Court, to reconvene said grand jury immediately, or cause another to be impaneled, and that they be instructed to make a thorough and exhaustive examination into the methods in the business of this court has been conducted in the past, and to inquire fully and exhaustively into the official conduct of each and every member of said court, and that they take such action as the evidence may warrant, either by indicting those found to be guilty, or acquitting and exonerating those found to be innocent of any official misconduct, or violation of the law, as the facts may develop, and that justice may be done to all concerned.

"Second, be it further resolved, that Hon. E. M. Dickson be requested and authorized to present a copy of these resolutions to the Judge of the Bourbon Circuit Court."

Probable Fatal Accident.

D. S. Lermond, foreman of the L. & N. bridge carpenter forces, met with a probable fatal accident in the L. & N. Yards, in this city, yesterday afternoon. He had just stepped out of his office and started across the track, not seeing a car that had just been thrown on the switch by the yard crew, which knocked him under the wheels, cutting off his left leg and severely mashing the foot of the other. The right leg will in all probability have to be taken off. Mr. Lermond is a very delicate man and it is feared cannot stand the shock. A special sad feature of the case is that his wife is away from home, being at the bedside of a dying brother near Cincinnati. He was sent to St. Joseph Hospital immediately after the accident on a special train, being accompanied by Dr. Frank Fithian. He is one of our cleverest and most highly respected citizens and much sympathy is expressed for him.

LATER.—Just as we go to press we learn that they were compelled to amputate the right leg, and Mr. Lermond was not expected to live until morning.

Sunflower Philosophy.

[Atchison (Kan.) Globe.]

Every married man has the fact thrown up to him frequently.

Perhaps one reason every one loves a little girl is that she will play with her doll and make no noise about it.

If you were raised a pet the people like to get after you like town dogs get after one that strolls in from the country.

Some people never carry a watch for the reason that it is much easier to ask some one else to open his and find out the time.

A hen-pecked man is not hitched up right unless he tamely submits when his wife squeezes the black-heads out of his face.

If you have a grievance against a man and can't get over it, walk up to him and say: "Square yourself; I intend to hit you." That will give him fair notice; and may the best man win. But don't whine.

This is the season when barefoot boys kick and scream so hard at night because they have to wash their feet before going to bed, that neighbors wonder that their mother doesn't lose patience and cut off their feet.

We know of plenty of women who, in 99 cases out of 100, are polite, useful and agreeable, and yet who seem to cultivate one little bad habit that causes their friends to forget all their good habits. If we had but one bad habit we would try to conquer it.

They are always telling that the bereaved husband on the way back from the cemetery can't keep his thoughts off a new wife. How about the widow on her way back to the house, wondering how soon they will pay over the insurance money? If one charge is true, why not the other.

HERE AND THERE.

In the matter of automobile exports to Germany this country stands second to France, leading Great Britain by a comfortable margin.

Automobiles can cross the frontier of Russia only by special permission of the Minister of Finance, obtained by written request.

A rumor is in circulation in St. Petersburg that Gen. Kuropatkin had been killed. There was another rumor that 70,000 Russians had been cut off by Gen. Nogi's army.

There were landed at all stations in England and Wales during 1903 nearly 153,000 tons of herrings. The average value per hundred weight was $1.40, as against $1.50 in 1902 and $1.74 in 1901.

Students at Japanese universities and commercial schools are not obliged to serve in the army. In Germany it has often happened that the universities were closed because all the students and professors had joined the army.

It is reported that Chinese sentiment in opposition to the exclusion laws of the United States is growing fast, and is manifested in many ways, to the detriment of the American interests in the Orient. The exclusion of Chinese coolies from Hawaii and the Philippine Islands is regarded as particularly obnoxious. The Chinese Government is being urged by many of its subjects to take a firm stand in the matter.

The Harper will, which was probated in the Woodford County Court last April, gives a farm of 158 acres to Therese Blackburn Lane, granddaughter of Senator Blackburn, cash notes and bonds to the children of Harper's nieces, Mrs. W. T. Hawkins and Mrs. William E. Raily, and the remainder of his estate, being the bulk of it, and including Nantura Farm, to Frank Harper Hawkins and Clinton Hawkins, Jr., sons of his niece, Mrs. C. Governor Folk on the Reign of Law.

At the Covington Library Auditorium Thursday night, before an audience composed of the leading barristers of the State of Kentucky and many of the prominent citizens of Covington, who were entertaining the State Bar Association, Governor Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, spoke on the subject, "The Reign of Law." We extract the following gems from his address:

We need a revival of the will of the people.

A government by bribery is a government by the wealth of the few and not by the people.

Absolute liberty to do as one pleases would mean barbarism.

If each man were allowed to say what laws are good and what laws are bad, and to ignore laws that he considered bad, there would be no laws at all.

The trust magnate looks with abhorrence on the burglar, yet thinks that he has a right to break the statute against combinations and monopolies.

The burglar detests the law breaking of the trusts, but considers the law against house breaking as an interference with his personal liberty.

We need reform in the administration of the law more than anything else.

An imperfect law well administered is far preferable to a law badly carried out.

Good government depends more on the man behind the law than on the law itself.

Bad citizens are combined; good citizens are divided; that is the true cause of law breaking.

Insure with W. O. Hinton. He has the right kind of insurance.
